

Do you have hearing loss?

The following questions can help you determine if you need to have your hearing evaluated by a medical professional.

Do you have a problem hearing over the telephone?	Y	N
Do you have trouble following the conversation when two or more people are talking at the same time?	Y	N
Do people complain that you turn the TV volume up too high?	Y	N
Do you have to strain to understand conversation?	Y	N
Do you have trouble hearing in a noisy background?	Y	N
Do you find yourself asking people to repeat themselves?	Y	N
Do many people you talk to seem to mumble (or not speak clearly)?	Y	N
Do you misunderstand what others are saying and respond inappropriately?	Y	N
Do you have trouble understanding the speech of women and children?	Y	N
Do people get annoyed because you misunderstand what they say?	Y	N

If you answered "yes" to three or more of these questions, you may want to see an otolaryngologist (an ear, nose, and throat specialist) or an audiologist for a hearing evaluation.
